Coming Up: Culture, Languages & Leadership

Building Confidence, Leadership, and Global Awareness

As we look ahead, our school community continues to celebrate learning through culture, language, leadership and meaningful experiences beyond the classroom.

Bathukamma Celebrations
Colours of Tradition, Joy in Togetherness

The spirit of Telangana came alive at Global Edge School, Madhapur with the vibrant Bathukamma celebrations. Our little ones and teachers came together to celebrate this beautiful festival with flower arrangements, traditional attire, folk songs and dances. The event not only showcased our rich cultural heritage but also filled everyone with joy, unity and a sense of belonging.

Bhasha Saptah
Many Languages, One Voice

Global Edge School, Madhapur celebrated Bhasha Saptah with great enthusiasm and pride. The week was a tribute to the diversity and beauty of our languages. Students participated in a variety of activities such as recitations, poetry, storytelling, slogan writing and presentations in different languages. The event helped everyone appreciate the richness of our linguistic heritage and the power of words in bringing people together.

MDP MUN
Think. Debate. Do. Create a Better Tomorrow.

The Model United Nations (MDP MUN) at Global Edge School, Madhapur provided a platform for our students to step into the shoes of global leaders. They engaged in meaningful discussions, shared diverse perspectives and worked towards finding solutions to real-world challenges. The event enhanced their confidence, critical thinking, communication and leadership skills, while instilling a strong sense of global responsibility.
